

Position Title:      Production Supervisor

Summary:            We are currently recruiting for a results-driven, hands-on leader with a keen interest in fostering continuous improvement, to direct the hourly production workers. Well developed communication, organization and planning skills are required. Prior supervisory experience in a unionized setting is a must. Must be able to work various production shifts as required.

This is a fast-paced and dynamic environment that offers both challenge and opportunity. Candidates with previous food processing experience gained in a HACCP environment will be given preference.

Interested candidates are asked to submit applications to:
